(20) Life membership Policy:

1) Guidelines for Election of Life Members

- a) Life Membership can be awarded by the Huon Valley Golf Club Management Committee for outstanding contribution to the Club by a Huon Valley Golf Club Member or, Volunteers and Patrons

- b) This policy sets out the minimum criteria to be eligible for nomination for an award of Life Membership
- c) This award exists to recognise the valuable contribution of individuals to the current and future existence of the Club

2) Criteria for Life Membership:

The points to be taken into account when considering any nomination:

a) Length of Service

The length of service to the Club should be extended service of at least 20 years as a player or as a volunteer with such service in either role

b) General Considerations

- The general attitude and overall demeanour of the nominee shows a dedication to the values of the Club
- Commitment to the principles of good sportsmanship
- Valued leadership and good role modelling that reflects credit upon the Club
- Ongoing financial support to the Club either by Sponsorship or Donation
- Except non-playing volunteers or patrons, the candidates must satisfy at least one of the following criteria

c) Specific Criteria

- 1) A minimum of ten (10) years' service on the Management Committee or Sub Committees
- 2) A significant ongoing contribution to the benefit of the Club or;
- 3) An outstanding contribution which results in the Club being substantially and positively changed by that contribution, occurred over a period of time and be clearly documented and corroborated.

Satisfaction of the criteria described above does not infer automatic granting of Life membership. The criteria are for the guidance of the Management Committee when assessing nominated candidates.

On receipt of nominations the Management Committee of the day (should knowledge of a nominee's contribution and or service not be clear or readily known by members of committee) may seek input from current day Life Members and other long serving members.

Nominations need to be considered in the present tense, not posthumously, give credit when credit is due not after one's demise. Memorials are for the departed, awards and recognition for outstanding contribution and service need to be bestowed upon and enjoyed by the living.

Benefits of Life Membership

- Awarded Life Membership at Huon Valley Golf Club Annual General Meeting
- Reduction of membership subscription – Life members pay capitation fees only

6. The income and property of the Association, however derived, shall be applied solely towards the promotion of the objects and purposes of the Association and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred, directly or indirectly, by dividend, bonus, or otherwise, to any member of the Association, provided that nothing herein shall prevent the payment, in good faith, of remuneration to any officer or servant of the Association, or to any member of the Association or other person, in return for any services actually rendered to the Association.

7. (1) True accounts shall be kept -

- (a) of all sums of money received and expended and the matter in respect of which the receipt or expenditure takes place; and

- (b) of the property, credits, and liabilities of the Association, and shall be open to inspection of members of the committee and the committee shall, from time to time, determine whether, and to what extent, and at what time, and under what restrictions, the accounts of the Association, or any of them, shall be open to the inspection of the members of the Association and no member, not being a member of committee, shall have any right of inspecting any account, or book, or document of the Association, provided that the committee shall lay before the members of the Association, at the annual general meeting, an account of the income and expenditure for the period since preceding account, together with a balance sheet made up to a date not later than three months before such meeting.
- (2) The Treasurer of the Association shall faithfully keep all general records, accounting books, and records of receipts and expenditure connected with the operations and business of the Association, in such form and manner as the committee may direct.
- (3) The accounts and books referred to in sub-rules (1) and (2) of this rule shall be kept at the Association's office or at such place as the committee may decide.
- 8. (1) The Treasurer of the Association shall, on behalf of the Association, receive all monies paid to the Association and forthwith after the receipt thereof issue official receipts therefore.
- (2) The committee shall cause to be opened with such bank as the committee elects, a banking account in the name of the Association into which all monies received shall be paid by the Treasurer as soon as possible after receipt thereof.
- (3) The committee may receive from the Association's bank or bankers for the time being the cheques drawn by the Association on any of its accounts with the bank or bankers and may release and indemnify the bank or bankers from and against all claims, actions, suits, or demands that may be brought against the bank or bankers arising directly or indirectly out of those cheques or the surrender thereof to the Association.
- (4) Except with the authority of the committee, no payment of a sum exceeding fifty dollars shall be made from the funds of the Association otherwise than by cheque drawn on the Association's bank account, but the committee may provide the Treasurer with a sum to meet urgent expenditure, subject to the observance of such conditions in relation to the use and expenditure thereof as the committee may impose.

8. (5) No cheques shall be drawn on the Association's bank account except for the payment of expenditure that has been authorized by the committee.
- (6) All cheques, drafts, bills of exchange, promissory notes, and other negotiable instruments shall be signed by the Treasurer, or if absent by such other member or members of the committee as the committee may nominate for that purpose, and shall be countersigned by the public officer, or if absent by such other member or members of the committee as the committee may nominate for that purpose.
9. (1) At each annual general meeting of the Association, the members present shall appoint a person as the auditor of the Association.
- (2) A person so appointed shall hold office until the annual general meeting next after that at which the person is appointed, and shall be eligible for re-appointment.
- (3) The first auditor of the Association may be appointed by the committee before the first annual general meeting, and if so appointed, shall hold office until the first annual general meeting, unless previously removed by a resolution of the members at a general meeting, in which case the members at that meeting may appoint an auditor to act until the first annual general meeting.
- (4) If an appointment is not made at the annual general meeting, the committee shall appoint an auditor of the Association for the then current financial year of the Association.
- (5) Except as provided in sub-rule (3) of this rule, the auditor may only be removed from office by special resolution.
- (6) If a casual vacancy occurs in the office of auditor during the course of a financial year of the Association, the committee may appoint a person as the auditor and the person so appointed shall hold office until the next succeeding annual general meeting.
10. (1) Once at least in each financial year of the Association, the accounts of the Association shall be examined by the auditor.
- (2) The auditor shall certify as to the correctness of the accounts of the Association and shall report thereon to the members present at the annual general meeting.

- (3) In certifying the accounts, the auditor shall state -
 - (a) that all information required was obtained
 - (b) that professionally the accounts are properly drawn up so as exhibit a true and correct view of the financial position of the Association according to the information provided and the explanations given and as shown by the books of the Association; and
 - (c) whether the rules relating to the administration of the funds of the Association have been observed.
 - (4) The public officer of the Association shall cause to be delivered to the auditor a list of all the accounts, books, and records of the Association.
 - (5) The auditor -
 - (a) has a right to access to the accounts, books, records, vouchers, and documents of the Association
 - (b) may require from the servants of the Association such information and explanations as may be necessary for the performance of the duties required by the auditor
 - (d) may employ persons to assist in investigating the accounts of the Association; and
 - (d) may, in relation to the accounts of the Association, examine any member of the committee or any servant of the Association.
11. (1) The Association shall, in each year, hold an annual general meeting.
- (2) The annual general meeting shall be held on such day (being not later than three months after the close of the financial year of the Association) as the committee shall determine.
 - (3) The annual general meeting shall be in addition to any other general meetings that may be held in the same year.
 - (4) The annual general meeting shall be specified as such in the notice convening it.
 - (5) The ordinary business of the annual general meeting shall be -
 - (a) to confirm the minutes of the last preceding annual general meeting and of any general meeting held since that meeting

- (b) to receive from the committee, auditor, and servants of the Association reports upon the transactions of the Association during the last preceding financial year
 - (c) to declare the ballot and confirm the election of the officers of the Association and the committee members
 - (d) to appoint the auditor and determine the remuneration to apply
 - (e) to determine the remuneration of servants of the Association.
- (6) The annual general meeting may transact special business of which notice is given in accordance with these rules.
- (7) All general meetings other than the annual general meeting shall be called special general meetings.
- (8) The rules of the Association may be amended at any general meeting provided that –
- (a) notice is given in accordance with these rules; and
 - (b) at least three quarters of those members present and entitled to vote, vote in favour.
12. (1) The committee may, whenever it thinks fit, convene a special general meeting of the Association.
- (2) The committee shall, on the requisition in writing of not less than twenty members, convene a special general meeting of the Association.
- (3) A requisition for a special general meeting shall state the objects of the meeting and shall be signed by the requisitionists and deposited at the office of the Association and may consist of several documents in the like form, each signed by one or more of the requisitionists.
- (4) If the committee does not cause a special general meeting to be held within twenty-one days from the date on which a requisition therefor is deposited at the office of the Association, the requisitionists, or any of them, may convene the meeting; but any meeting so convened shall not be held after three months from the date of the deposit of the requisition.
- (5) A special general meeting convened by requisitionists in pursuance of these rules shall be convened in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which those meetings are convened by the committee, and all reasonable expenses incurred in convening the meeting shall be refunded by the Association to the persons incurring them.

13. The public officer shall, at least fourteen days before the date fixed for holding a general meeting of the Association, cause to be inserted in at least one newspaper published in this State an advertisement specifying the place, date, and time for the holding of the meeting, and the nature of the business to be transacted thereat.
 - (1) All business that is transacted at special general meetings and all business that is transacted at the annual general meeting, with the exception of that specifically referred to in these rules as being the ordinary business of the annual general meeting, shall be deemed to be special business.
 - (2) No item of business shall be transacted at a general meeting unless a quorum of members, entitled under these rules to vote, is present during the time when the meeting is considering that item.
 - (3) Twenty members personally present (being members entitled under these rules to vote thereat) constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of a general meeting.
 - (4) If within one hour after the appointed time for the commencement of a general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of members, shall be dissolved; and in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day next week, at the same time and (unless another place is specified by the chairman at the time of the adjournment or by written notice to members given before the day on which the meeting is adjourned) at the same place, and if at the adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within one hour after the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting, the meeting shall be dissolved.
 - (1) The President shall preside as chairman at every general meeting of the Association. If the President is absent the Vice President shall preside.
 - (2) If the President and Vice-President are absent from a general meeting, the members present shall elect one of their own number to preside as chairman thereat, provided that such election shall not be held until at least fifteen minutes have elapsed after the advertised starting time of the meeting.
 - (1) The chairman of a general meeting at which a quorum is present may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn the meeting from time to time and place to place, but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting at which the adjournment took place.
 - (2) Where a meeting is adjourned for fourteen days or more, the like notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of the original meeting.
 - (3) Except as provided in the foregoing provisions of this rule, it is not necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.

17. A question arising at a general meeting of the Association shall be determined on a show of hands and unless before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands a poll is demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has, on a show of hands, been carried, or carried unanimously, or carried by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Association, is evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of, or against, that resolution.
 - (1) Upon any question arising at a general meeting of the Association, a member has one vote only.
 - (2) All votes shall be given personally.
 - (3) In the case of an equality of voting on a question the chairman of the meeting is entitled to exercise a second or casting vote.
 - (4) Only full members are entitled to vote at a general meeting.
19. If at a meeting a poll on any question is demanded it shall be taken at that meeting in such manner as the chairman may direct, and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting on that question.
20. A poll that is demanded on an the election of a chairman, or on a question of adjournment, shall be taken forthwith, and a poll that is demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time before the close of the meeting as the chairman shall direct.
 - (1) The affairs of the Association shall be managed by a committee of management constituted as provided in rule 23.
 - (2) The committee -
 - (a) shall control and manage the business and affairs of the Association;
 - (b) may, subject to these rules, exercise all such powers and functions as may be exercised by the Association, other than those powers and functions that are required by these rules to be exercised by general meetings of members of the Association; and
 - (c) subject to the Act and these rules, has power to perform all such acts and things as appear to the committee to be essential for the proper management of the business and affairs of the Association; and
 - (d) except as hereinbefore provided in these rules, any motion or resolution carried at a general meeting, shall be effective only as a recommendation to the committee and the committee shall not be bound to adopt or ratify the same.

- (3) A record shall be kept by the person presiding at the annual general meeting, of the results of any ballots for the election of officers or committee members.
- (4) In the event of a casual vacancy occurring in the officers or committee members, the committee may -
 - (a) appoint the member who attained the next highest votes in any ballot held at the annual general meeting as provided in sub-rule (3) of this rule; and

(b) if no ballot was held, elect such member as the committee sees fit.

24. (1) Nominations of candidates for elections as officers of the Association or as committee members
- (a) shall be made in writing signed by two full members and accompanied by the written consent of the candidate (which may be endorsed on the form of nomination); and
- (b) shall be noted by the public officer who shall cause the nominations to be affixed to the Association notice board at least twenty one days before the date fixed for the holding of the annual general meeting.
- (2) If insufficient nominations are received to fill all vacancies on the committee, the candidates nominated shall be deemed to be elected and in the event of insufficient nominations being received, the retiring members of the Committee shall continue to act but have power at any time to recommend to the committee appointment of members in their place or in place of any of them.
- (3) If the number of nominations received is equal to the number of vacancies to be filled, the persons nominated shall be deemed to be elected.
- (4) If the number of nominations exceed the number of vacancies to be filled, a ballot shall be held.
24. (5) A register of full members shall be kept and a polling form made available for the casting of votes either by direct ballot at the clubhouse or by postal vote.

Full members wishing to cast their vote at the clubhouse may do so by signing the register on receipt of the polling form and having cast their vote shall place their ballot form in the locked designated ballot box.

Full members who request and sign the register for a postal vote should ensure their ballot is posted in sufficient time to be received by the secretary prior to the close of business on the day scheduled for the conducting of the Annual General Meeting. Postal ballot forms received after this time shall not be eligible

Postal ballot forms shall be issued with self- addressed envelopes numbered and on receipt thereof cross referenced against the register to ensure a true and accurate recording of votes

- (6) The ballot for the election of officers and committee members:
- (a) shall be conducted over a period of twenty one days up to and including the annual general meeting of the Association.

- (b) the counting and declaration of the ballot shall be conducted at the annual general meeting in such usual and proper manner as the committee may direct.

- 25. For the purpose of these rules, the office of an officer of the Association or a committee member becomes vacant if the officer or committee member -
